

All upcoming 8th grade students will read one book over the summer.

There is no written assignment required during the summer; however, all students should be prepared to work with the texts in detail when they return to school. There will be a test on the required summer reading book.

8th grade: The Giver by Lois Lowry